

Service Provider Training to Support LGBT2SQ+ Communities

Fall 2020 Training Series

Training for anti-violence, health, and social services workers anywhere in the Vancouver Coastal Health region. Learn about:

- Prevalence and power dynamics of violence and abuse in LGBT2SQ+ relationships
- Myths, stereotypes, and silences in LGBT2SQ+ communities
- Inclusive services and how to respond more effectively with greater knowledge, sensitivity, and skill

A certification of completion will be available for participants who attend all four online sessions.

Training Facilitators

Olivia Fischer is a white queer, non-binary settler who lives, studies, and works on the unceded territories of the Coast Salish people in Vancouver. Olivia is currently working on her PhD in Counselling Psychology and has been facilitating Safe Choices workshops for over five years.

Daley Laing is a white, disabled non-binary facilitator, transformational coach and mental health practitioner. Their work is rooted in creating accessible, liberation-oriented supports to help individuals and organizations build the worlds they want and need.

Online Training Dates 1:00 - 2:00PM PST

- Dec 9 Language and Assumptions
- Dec 11 Prevalence and Power Dynamics
- Dec 16 Systems and Silences
- Dec 18 Inclusive Practices and Resources

Free to register!

Click here to register!

For more information, or for training opportunities outside the VCH region, please contact safechoices@endingviolence.org